

Edgefield Advertiser.

Card of Thanks.

I take this means of thanking my friends in all parts of the county for the assistance they gave me while I was working as a contestant in the recent subscription contest conducted by The Advertiser. The many kind attentions which I received from my friends made the work a real pleasure. I shall always be grateful to them.

Improved Cotton Seed.

Mr. R. F. Adams, a prosperous farmer who resides near Batesburg, advertises improved cotton seed in this issue. In 1913 he made 664 pounds of lint per acre with only 200 pounds of standard guano from this cotton on land that usually makes from 500 to 600 pounds of seed cotton, and in 1913 Mr. Adams made a still larger yield on thin land, using only 200 pounds of fertilizer per acre. He is pleased with the improved variety after trying it two years.

Member of Presbytery.

Rev. P. P. Blalock attended a meeting of the Charleston Presbytery in Columbia Tuesday and after being thoroughly examined was duly commissioned a minister of the Presbyterian church by that body. Mr. Blalock has had a change of church affiliation under consideration for some time but not until recently did he make a definite decision as to certain doctrines. The members of his family were received into the Presbyterian church there several weeks ago.

Constantly on The Alert.

As president of the chamber of commerce, Capt. O. P. Bright is constantly on the alert, never losing an opportunity to advance the interests of Edgefield. By writing to the railroad commission he has caused the Southern road to make its connection with the morning train from the north. When the train is late passengers will not have to wait at Trenton until 12:30 but will be brought at once to Edgefield.

Will Erect Modern Hotel.

Mr. E. S. Johnson is planning to erect a modern, 18-room hotel on the corner opposite the depot where his store now stands. The building will have a frontage of 50 feet and extend back 75 feet toward his residence. It will be two stories in height. The first floor will be used for a store and office. It is Mr. Johnson's purpose to make the building modern in all of its appointments. He is having the plan drawn by one who has had considerable experience in work of this kind. The building is to be completed and ready for occupancy by the 1st of October. It has already been leased by Mr. D. T. Grice.

Two Marriages.

Last Sunday afternoon two marriages in which Edgefield is deeply interested occurred at the home of Mr. Robert Strom near Mountain Creek church. Miss Ollie Byrd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Byrd who has made her home in Edgefield for nearly two years, and Mr. James Griffin, a son of the late Thomas Griffin, were married, also Miss Ida Griffin, a sister of Mr. James Griffin, and Mr. Chris Williams, a son of Mr. C. H. B. Williams. Rev. J. R. McKittrick officiated at the double wedding. All of these young people are members of prominent families of the Berea Gligal section, and they have friends in all parts of the county who extend hearty congratulations.

Crescent Concert Company.

The lyceum entertainment which is to be given in the opera house tomorrow, Thursday evening, promises to be one of the most attractive of the entire course. Four young ladies will present an attractive program of sketches, music and story. An attractive feature will be the costumes and character sketches. Each of the four young ladies is an artist in her particular field, which makes them especially effective when all of them appear in one number. The managers of the lyceum for this season made a very fortunate selection when they included the Crescent Concert Company in the list of attractions. The ladies who are employed by the Alkalist bureau are always very gifted entertainers, consequently we do not hesitate to urge our people to attend the entertainment Thursday evening that is to be given by four young ladies.
